The mission of the Department of Defense is to provide the military forces needed to deter war and protect the security of our country. The national security depends on our defense installations and facilities being in the right place with the right qualities and capacities to protect our nation.

Sustainability and the DoD Mission

DoD's sustainability vision is to maintain the ability to operate into the future without decline. Our sustainability plan focuses on such key issues as increasing use of renewable energy; constructing high performance sustainable buildings; and increasing water efficiency and reuse.

DoD And State Partnerships

DoD and military service representatives work proactively with State legislators and officials to build partnerships and awareness of actions that could benefit or impact the military mission.

FORT BELVOIR

Few other Army installations in the world can compare with Fort Belvoir's singular mission of providing both logistical and administrative support to 90 diverse tenant and satellite organizations that call this post home. Established in 1915, Fort Belvoir is home to the headquarters of the US Army Intelligence and Security Command and the US Army Criminal Investigation Command as well as 19 other agencies of the Department of Army, eight elements of the U.S. Army Reserve and the Army National Guard, and 26 DoD agencies. Also located here are a U.S. Navy construction battalion, a Marine Corps detachment, a U.S. Air Force activity, and an agency from the Department of the Treasury.

VIRGINIA NATIONAL GUARD

The Guard organizes, trains, and equips Virginia's citizen-soldiers and airmen to ensure quick mobilization within the state or world-wide. Unique within DoD, the Guard services Virginia's Governor and the President in time of crisis. A reflection of its over 8,000 citizen-soldiers and airmen, the Guard contributes to the state collectively through major training facilities and 67 smaller armories or similar facilities.
