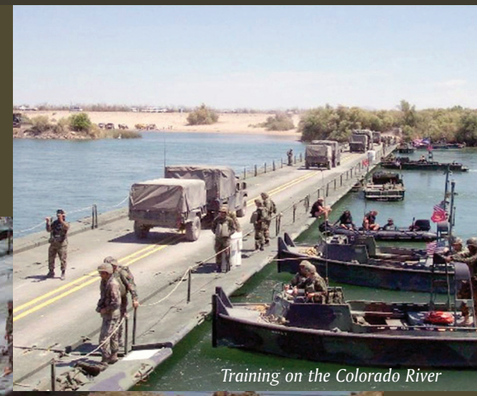
Did You Know In GEORGIA

- There are fourteen major installations and facilities.
- The DoD budget is greater than $12.6 billion.
- DoD employs more than 138,000 uniformed and civilian personnel state-wide.

We Must Train As We Fight

Our troops need to train in settings similar to the real combat environments they will find themselves in. This ensures that when called upon, their fighting skills are second nature.



Training on the Colorado River

Crossing the Saddam Canal, Iraq

Maintaining A Natural Environment Is Critical

Our fighting men and women must train in realistic, natural environments. Our commitment to healthy, well-managed natural resources will provide realistic training today and into the future.

Linking DoD And The State

DoD's Regional Environmental Coordinators focus on working cooperatively with state rule-writers and legislators to help maintain realistic training environments. This proactive approach provides solutions that help ensure military readiness.

Sustaining Readiness In Partnership With States

DoD IN GEORGIA

The National Guard

The Guard organizes, trains, and equips Georgia's citizen-soldiers and airmen to ensure quick mobilization within the state or world-wide. Unique within DoD, the Guard services Georgia's Governor and the President in time of crisis. A reflection of its 11,000 citizen-soldiers and airmen, the Guard contributes to the state collectively through 69 smaller armories, similar facilities and major training facilities.

Dobbins Air Reserve Base

Dobbins Air Reserve Base receives, trains and equips components of all four Services and the Army and Air National Guards. Over 10,000 Soldiers, sailors, airmen and Marines will train within the complex. Approximately 100 aircraft of 10 different types are assigned to Dobbins ARB/NAS Atlanta to include various missions from aeromedical helicopters to tactical cargo aircraft.

Robins Air Force Base

Robins Air Force Base is home to Warner Robins Air Logistics Center, the 78th Air Base Wing, and over 60 other units that contribute to the Air Force war fighting team. It is the largest industrial complex in Georgia, employing a work force of over 25,584 civilian, contractor, and military members.

Fort Gordon

Fort Gordon employees approximately 20,000 military and civilian personnel and is a mainstay of the Augusta-Richmond County economy. The mission of the Army Signal Center and Fort Gordon encompasses training, doctrine, force integration and mobilization. The Signal Center conducts specialized instruction for all Signal Regiment military and Army civilians, and provides doctrine and training development support of publications.

Fort Benning

Fort Benning is a self-sustaining military community covering 182,000 acres and supporting in excess of 100,000 military, civilian and retired military citizens. It is capable of deploying combat-ready forces by air, rail, and highway; home to the US Army Infantry School and Special Operations Command's only Ranger Regiment, among many additional units.

Fort Stewart

At Fort Stewart, tank, field artillery, helicopter gunnery, and small arms ranges operate simultaneously year round. It is the largest Army installation east of the Mississippi River, encompassing 279,270 acres including Hunter Army Airfield: the Army's longest runway on the east coast. The installation is close to two deep water ports: Savannah, GA, and Charleston, SC.

MCLB Albany

MCLB Albany's mission is to support East Coast installations and rebuild and repair ground-combat and combat-support equipment. One of Albany's most important facilities is the Marine Corps Logistics Bases' Maintenance Center, with a sister installation in Barstow, California. The center is home base for the commander of the Marine Corps Logistics Bases, including Barstow, CA, and Jacksonville, FL.

Moody Air Force Base

First established in World War II as Moody Field, Moody AFB long served as a major pilot-training base. President George W. Bush was trained as a fighter pilot at Moody beginning November 1968. The base is 1 km^2 and home to the 374th Rescue Wing, the 479th Flying Training Group, and the 820th Security Forces Group.

Kings Bay

Naval Submarine Base Kings Bay encompasses approximately 16,000 acres, is home to more than 9,000 military, civilian and contract personnel and a variety of animals, including: 229 bird, 68 mammal, 67 reptile (5 poisonous snake), and 37 amphibious species. Twenty of these species are threatened or endangered.
